Changing the way we think about kinship

A whole system approach to achieving better outcomes

Carol Wassell, Permanence Consultant, CELCIS
PACE

• Everyone in the system has a part to play in improvement

• Need a rigorous process for delivering and evidencing improvement
Model for Improvement

- What are we trying to accomplish?
- How will we know that a change is an improvement?
- What change can we make that will result in improvement?

“Strong evidence for an innovation is necessary but not sufficient to result in adoption”

Mark Freeman 2012 ‘The International Journal of Management Education’

“You can’t impose anything on anyone and expect them to be committed to it”

Edgar Schein, Professor Emeritus MIT Sloan School

The Transtheoretical Model (Prochaska & DiClemente, 1983; Prochaska, DiClemente, & Norcross, 1992)
What have we achieved?

• Suites of data linked to specific aims for children
• Reduction in the time taken for children to reach key milestones
• Improved multi agency working
• Embedding of theoretical based model for improvement
WE CANNOT SOLVE OUR PROBLEMS WITH THE SAME THINKING WE USED WHEN WE CREATED THEM
